

CPYRGHT

Georgetown House Tour

THE thirty-ninth annual Georgetown House Tour will be held this year from 1 P.M. to 5:30 P.M. Friday and Saturday, April 1.

Each day ten of the area's most interesting homes will be toured for the benefit of St. John's Church. Friday ten homes east of Wisconsin avenue will be shown, and Saturday ten houses west of Wisconsin avenue will be open.

Included in the Friday tour are the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Fortas, J. Francis Harris 3d, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Joseph R. Sipper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hintner and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Welsh-Dulles.

Also, the homes of Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Wynant Davis Vanderpool, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Michael Straight, Mr. and Mrs. James Espy and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Montgomery.

Saturday tourists will be shown the homes of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Scheuer, Mrs. Poe Burling, Mr. and Mrs. E. Harrison Clark, Wesley I. Steele and Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Cargy.

The homes of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koch, Mr. and Mrs. J. Noel Macy, Mr. and Mrs. Clairborne Pell, John Brown Jacob and Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Torck will also be toured.

At each house a hostess will explain the collections of antiques, glass, silver, portraits, modern art and other furnishings, as well as the colonial to contemporary architectural features found in the homes.